

Terms and Conditions for the BCB Credit Card Programme

Please read this agreement carefully and keep it for future reference.

This document constitutes the agreement outlining the terms and conditions under which a credit card has been issued to you by BCB. For an explanation of the terms contained in this agreement please see the definition section on BCB's website under the credit card tab, www.bcb.bm. By accepting and using a credit card, you agree to be bound by the terms of the agreement. The card is a credit card, which allows you to purchase goods and services, to obtain cash advances, and to pay for them later up to the maximum credit limit extended to you by BCB. The card does not constitute a checking, savings, or other bank account and is not connected to any other account you may have with BCB. The card will remain the property of BCB and must be surrendered upon demand. The card is nontransferable, and it may be cancelled, repossessed, or revoked at any time without prior notice subject to applicable law.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Joint Primary Account Holders | Where there is more than one primary account holder, then the liability of each of them shall be joint and several. If you wish to cancel this agreement, all joint primary account holders must agree.

Supplementary Cards | BCB, in its discretion, may issue supplementary cards for use on the account to persons nominated by the principal cardholder, and the terms of this agreement shall apply to supplementary cardholders. Supplementary cardholders are deemed agents of the principal cardholder, who shall be bound by the use of supplementary card/s as if he/she had used them personally. However, at the election of BCB, supplementary cardholders will be liable as principals on the account. At the written request of the principal cardholder, BCB shall cancel the card/s with effect from their return to BCB.

Responsibility for Purchases or ATM Transactions | BCB accepts no responsibility for purchases or ATM transactions you agree to make, and you agree to pay BCB for all purchases and cash transactions even though a dispute may exist between you and the merchant. BCB shall not be responsible whatsoever for or in connection with the provision of any insurance coverage or other services or products, which may be provided by third parties to you or your family.

Renewal and Expiry Date | Cards are valid through to the anniversary date of the account as it appears on BCB's files, and are renewable for a two-year period, at the discretion of BCB, for an annual fee in accordance with a fee schedule which shall be published by BCB from time to time, and which fees shall be available on request to BCB. You agree not to use the card after its expiry date. If it is used, you agree to pay any debts incurred.

Credit Limit | Your credit limit will be advised to you when you receive notice that your card application has been approved and will be noted on your monthly statement. We can increase or reduce your credit limit without telling you in advance. You agree that your debt will not exceed the credit limit that is communicated to you from time to time. You are responsible for all penalty fees associated with your account exceeding the credit limit. A fee may be charged for the transaction that takes you over limit and each transaction thereafter in accordance with a fee schedule that shall be published by BCB from time to time. You are liable for all charges incurred on a supplementary card including those that may exceed the approved credit limit. You are responsible to pay any over limit amounts in full by your payment due date.

Property of BCB | The card remains the sole property of BCB and you agree to surrender the card on demand and pay any costs associated with outstanding balances, recovery or cancellation of the card.

CARD SECURITY

The cardholder shall immediately sign the card and any replacement issued on expiry or loss thereof immediately upon receipt. Signature on the card and use of the card constitute acceptance of the cardholder agreement. You must take every reasonable precaution to keep the card safe.

Confidentiality of Personal Identification Number (PIN) | You agree to keep your PIN separate from your card at all times. If you do not keep your PIN confidential, or if you keep your card and your PIN in a way that would compromise the security of your card, you will be liable for all debt, including interest and charges arising from its unauthorized use.

CONDITIONS OF USE

You can use your card wherever it is accepted, to make purchases. You can obtain cash advances from financial institutions that accept the card. By using the card, together with the PIN you have been issued, you can also obtain cash advances at any ATM displaying the Plus logo.

You must sign a sale or cash advance voucher every time the card is used unless the card is used over the telephone, at an Internet merchant or at a web site where no signature is present. Failure to sign a sales or cash advance voucher does not relieve you from responsibility for payment.

We will not be liable if a merchant or a business does not accept your card for any reason. You may only use the card for legal and genuine transactions or purchases. You will give BCB such financial statements and information as BCB may request from time to time, to keep your file up to date. The use of this card will always be subject to any statutory restrictions and/or regulations that the Bermuda Monetary Authority imposes or any other regulatory authority may impose. You acknowledge and accept that any transaction that BCB considers to be in breach of any such statutory restrictions, regulations or procedures may be declined.

Automated Teller Machines (ATMs) | The amount you can withdraw each day as a cash advance from an ATM, and the available ATM services, may vary from time to time. You may be charged a fee for a cash advance in accordance with BCB's fee schedule. We are not liable for any loss or damages you may suffer because of your use of an ATM or because of any failure to provide ATM services. We are not responsible for informing you of any mechanical failures of an ATM or for telling you when these services are changed or withdrawn.

BERMUDA RESIDENTS – USING THE CARD OVERSEAS

If you are a resident of Bermuda and plan to travel internationally, please call BCB before you depart to inform us that you will be using your card out of the country.

When ATM and credit card security personnel notice an unusual pattern of activity related to your card, they may call or email you, indicating there has been "suspicious activity" in your account. If you do not respond within a certain period of time, we may invalidate your card, suspecting fraud. You can avoid this situation (and the possibility of not being able to access your cash or make purchases) by notifying BCB of your general plans in advance of the trip.

If you are concerned with the security of telling someone you will be away from home, indicate that you might be called away on business over the next month and that activity in Countries A, B, and C should not be cause for concern.

FOREIGN CURRENCY TRANSACTIONS

The amount of any purchase(s) in any currency other than Bermuda dollars (BMD) will be billed in Bermuda dollars (BMD). Foreign transactions are subject to the prevailing currency conversion rates as determined by when the transaction settles to the account.

All foreign currency transactions, including US dollar (USD) transactions, are subject to Foreign Exchange (FX) and (if you are a resident in Bermuda for exchange control purposes) the Bermuda Government Foreign Currency Purchase Tax (FCPT) at the applicable rate set by the Bermuda Government. You are responsible for payment of the FCPT taxes the month they appear on the cardholder statement. These taxes will be included in your minimum payment amount.

Bermuda Exchange Control Regulations | You undertake, at all times, to comply with the Bermuda Exchange Control Regulations and agree to notify BCB immediately of any change of residential status.

CHANGES IN SERVICE

BCB will not be liable for any loss or damage suffered by you as a result of any change, discontinuance or addition of any attributes of the service. We can withdraw or terminate your right to use any or all services at any time without prior notice to you. We will have no liability to you for any loss or inconvenience that may result, unless such was caused by our gross negligence or willful misconduct.

LOST OR STOLEN CARDS AND UNAUTHORIZED TRANSACTIONS

You will inform us IMMEDIATELY by telephone and in writing about the loss, theft or suspicion of unauthorized use of your card, even if the card is expired or cancelled. Such information shall be supplied to either BCB by telephone during normal business hours, or to BCB's appointed agent (to be published by BCB from time to time and available on request from BCB) outside business hours. The telephone numbers are printed on the back of your card. Such notice must be confirmed in writing to BCB at the earliest opportunity addressed to The Bermuda Commercial Bank Limited, P.O. Box HM 1748, Hamilton HM GX, Bermuda. If your card is lost or stolen, or you suspect its unauthorized use, you will be liable for all debts resulting from its use until you have informed us by telephone or in writing that it has been lost or stolen or report your suspicions to us. As soon as you give notice as previously mentioned, liability for subsequent unauthorized sales and cash advances may cease. You will undertake to assist BCB and provide all relevant information as to the circumstances surrounding the loss or theft.

If you have previously authorized someone to use your card, whether or not you have withdrawn your authorization, you will continue to be liable for all debts incurred by its use until it has been surrendered to BCB.

Immediate Notice Requirement

If you become aware of facts that reasonably put you on inquiry as to the possibility of errors, omissions or irregularities affecting the card including any fraud or unauthorized activity, you will immediately notify BCB so as to prevent any ongoing fraud or unauthorized activity. If you fail to do so, any preventable subsequent losses will not be BCB's responsibility.

STATEMENT OF ACCOUNT

BCB shall forward a statement of account to you once a month showing the account charges, fees, applicable taxes and credits during the period and the account balance. Monthly statements are only prepared on business days, so your monthly statement date may vary from month to month. We will send monthly statements to the primary cardholder only to the most recent address appearing in BCB's records or through such other method as applicable to the account. You will be deemed to have received a statement of account for the preceding month, whether you actually receive one or not, on the earlier of: the day you actually receive a statement of account; the day on which you become aware of facts that reasonably put you on enquiry as to the possibility of errors, omission or irregularities affecting your account including any fraud or unauthorized activity; or 10 (ten) days after the last day of each month whether you actually receive a statement of account or not.

Review of Statements | You agree to examine every statement of account as soon as it is received by you or you are deemed to have received it. If you do not receive your statement within 30 (thirty) days of the date of the statement, you must inform us promptly in writing of such non-receipt. You will immediately and in any event no later than 30 (thirty) days after receiving or being deemed to have received a statement of account, give notice to BCB of any errors, omissions or irregularities, including any fraud or unauthorized activity, included in or preceding each statement of account. Unless objected to in writing within 30 (thirty) days of the date on which the statement of account is received, or is deemed to have been received by you, you agree that BCB's records are conclusive evidence of your dealings with BCB regarding the card, and are correct, complete, authorized and binding upon you, and BCB will be released from all responsibility for card activity preceding the statement of account pertaining to such errors, omissions, irregularities, fraud or unauthorized activity, including BCB's negligence (but excluding such due to BCB's gross negligence or willful misconduct).

Accepting Our Records | You agree to accept our records of a transaction as accurate unless you can provide contrary evidence that is satisfactory to BCB.

CREDIT CARD CHARGES

Finance charges are computed on the average daily purchase and cash advance balance outstanding for any monthly billing cycle when payments are not made in full in accordance with the Terms of Repayment.

In this section, references to "Daily Balance" and "Average Daily Balance (ADB)" relate to balances on cash advances and purchases. "Statement Cycle" refers to the number of days between one statement date and the next statement date.

Interest on Cash Advances | If you use the card to obtain a cash advance, we will charge you interest on each transaction from the date of the transaction to the date it is repaid in full. Interest is calculated on your cash advances daily and posted to your account monthly on the date your statement is produced. Interest is calculated using the daily revolving variable method. The Daily Balance is calculated by taking the beginning balance of cash advances, adding any new cash advances and debit adjustments related to cash advances made during the current billing cycle, and subtracting any payments or credit adjustments applied to cash advances. The ADB is calculated by dividing the total of all Daily Balances in the current Statement Cycle by the number of days in the current Statement Cycle. The resulting ADB amount is multiplied by the annual interest rate, then divided by 365, then multiplied by the number of days in the current Statement Cycle to give this month's interest charge.

Interest on retail purchases and other charges | Interest for each purchase transactions is charged from the date the transaction is posted in the system. Interest is calculated on your purchases and other charges daily and posted to your account monthly on the date your statement is produced. Interest on purchases and other charges for the current billing cycle is calculated using the daily revolving variable method. The Daily Balance is calculated by taking the beginning balance of purchases and other charges on your account, adding any new purchases, debit adjustments for purchases and other charges as of the date the transaction was posted, and subtracting any payments or credit adjustments applied to purchases and other charges. The ADB is calculated by dividing the total of all Daily Balances in the current Statement Cycle by the number of days in the current Statement Cycle. The resulting ADB amount is multiplied by the annual interest rate, then divided by 365, then multiplied by the number of days in the current Statement Cycle to give this month's interest charge. If last month's balance was paid in full, new purchases on the current statement are excluded from the current ADB, but will be included in next month's interest calculation if the current statement balance is not paid in full by the payment due date.

CREDIT CARD FEES

When we give you your card, we will also give you a notice telling you about current prevailing service charges, penalty fees, replacement fees and our annual fee. The annual fee will appear on your first monthly statement and is not refundable. In subsequent years, annual fees are charged on the anniversary statement each year. We will mail to your mailing address details of any changes to any of these rates or amounts.

TERMS OF REPAYMENT

Purchases and cash advances are payable by the payment due date shown on your monthly credit card statement. You will need to pay either the full outstanding balance due for all purchases and cash advances or, a minimum payment amount which will be shown on your statement. The calculations will include any outstanding fees, previous minimum payments and finance charges. Or you can pay an amount specified by you by standing order each month as long as the minimum payment due is paid in full.

Repaying the amounts you owe | When you use the card or allow others to use it, you incur a debt. Interest, service charges and annual fees that we charge you under this agreement will be added by us to your debt and will form part of your debt. You agree to repay the debt to BCB.

Late Payment Fee | If you do not make the minimum payment, you may be subject to a monthly late payment service charge.

Payments Processing | Payments can be made at BCB via cash or check, or through standing orders (internal debits) or Ebanking. Two full business days are required to process most payment methods. Payments made by check drawn on other banks are subject to appropriate clearance periods. Standing orders can be established against any Bermuda Commercial Bank Limited checking or call accounts with sufficient funds. BCB reserves the right to charge a fee for the implementation of standing order services. Payments made through Ebanking are effective the next business day if made before the cut off time advised to you when you make the payment.

Account Charges / Set-Off | BCB can charge to any account, set-off, or compensate as between your bank accounts, any of your credit card obligation, indebtedness or liabilities to BCB at any time and for any reason as allowed by law, even if this creates or increases an overdraft. If you are facing financial difficulties and are unable to meet your minimum payments, please contact us to discuss the options available to you, and we also recommend that you seek independent debt advice.

Making payment when mail service is disrupted | Even when normal mail service is disrupted, you must continue to make payments. If appropriate, we will tell you by way of email where to pick up your statement. Your statement will be deemed to have been delivered to you on the day it is available for you to pick up, whether or not you do so.

Applying your payments | We apply your payments first to unpaid delinquency interest, then to delinquent principal, then to billed interest charges, then to any billed principal for purchases and then to any billed principal for cash advances. Any commission charges are considered as principal for purchases. Next, if there is an unapplied portion of the payment, it is applied to unbilled purchases, charges and cash advances.

Payment Screening | BCB is required to act in accordance with our policies, the laws and regulations operating in various jurisdictions, which relate to the prevention of money laundering, terrorist financing and the provision of financial and other services to any persons or entities, which may be subject to sanctions. We may take any action that we, in our sole and absolute discretion, consider appropriate to take to comply with any such bank policies, laws and regulations to which we are subject. Such action may include but is not limited to; the interception and investigation of any payment messages and other information or instructions sent to or by you or on your behalf via our systems; and making further inquiries as to whether a name which might refer to a sanctioned person or entity actually refers to that person or entity.

Notwithstanding any provision of this agreement, BCB will not be liable for loss (whether direct, consequential or loss of profit, data or interest) or damage suffered by any party arising out of:

- any delay or failure by us in performing any of our duties under this agreement or other obligations caused in whole or part by any steps which we, in our sole and absolute discretion, consider appropriate to take in accordance with all such bank policies, laws and regulations; or
- the exercise of any of our rights under this clause.

In certain circumstances, the action, which we may take, may prevent or cause a delay in the processing of certain information. Therefore, we do not warrant that any information on our systems relating to any payment messages and instructions that are the subject of any action taken pursuant to this clause is accurate, current or up-to-date at the time it is accessed, whilst such action is being taken. Subject to the overriding requirements of any applicable bank policies, laws and regulations, we will endeavour to notify you of the existence of such circumstances as soon as it is reasonably practicable.

Payment of Total Debt | You or your estate will become liable to pay your total debt immediately, without any notice or demand from us, if you do not carry out your obligations under this agreement; if you become bankrupt or insolvent, or die, or upon legal attachment, levy or execution against you, your estate or your property; or if any card or PIN is used contrary to this agreement. You authorize us to charge any of your accounts with us for any amounts due under this agreement, notwithstanding that all or part of the monies held to your credit may have been deposited for a fixed period which may not have expired, or be in a different currency.

Payment of collection and legal costs and expenses | If your account is overdue and referred for collection, then the collection costs and any legal expenses incurred shall be charged to you and shall be payable by you on demand.

CREDIT VOUCHERS

If a merchant issues a credit voucher in respect of goods returned, BCB shall, upon receipt of the credit voucher from the merchant or the merchant's bank, credit the amount of the voucher to the appropriate account. Unless a credit voucher is issued and sent to BCB, the account, as submitted, is payable in full and no claim by you against the merchant may be the subject of set-off or counterclaim against BCB.

RESOLVING DISPUTES

With us: If you have a dispute with us regarding any matter affecting your account or your use of the service or a card, you will bring it to our attention. You will not initiate any proceedings relating to any dispute arising from the agreement, or use of your accounts or services until after you provide us with written notice of the nature of the dispute, and allow us 6 (six) weeks from the delivery of such notice to us to resolve the dispute to your satisfaction and any proceeding commenced in contravention hereof will be a nullity.

Disputes: You understand that if you have a dispute with us regarding any amount charged to your card, you are still responsible for all amounts outstanding from the date incurred unless you find a charge to be improper.

With Others: If you make purchases from a merchant using a service, you must settle any dispute regarding the goods or services directly with the merchant. You agree to indemnify BCB in respect of all claims arising from any such dispute with or by the merchant or any third party.

You, as the primary cardholder, will inform us in writing if you change your mailing and/or residential address.

OTHER SERVICES AND PRODUCTS

You understand that optional services may be available to you at an additional cost. Further, you understand that all services available with the card may be governed by separate agreements or authorizations by which you agree to be bound. You also understand that some of these services are supplied by firms independent of BCB and that BCB shall not have any responsibility or liability with respect to such services. To the extent that any other cardholder services and products may be provided by us, any such services and products shall be subject to modification or discontinuance by us, at any time, without notice.

You agree that what in our reasonable determination appears as your signature on electronic means communications or documents (whether or not actually signed by you) binds you legally and makes you responsible to the same extent and effect as if you had given original signed instructions (except if we have been grossly negligent or acted with willful misconduct). There may be some types of instructions or documents we will not accept by electronic means or telephone, and you understand that we reserve the right to refuse any electronic means or telephone instructions or documents in our sole discretion.

You can cancel this agreement by informing us in writing that you want to do so and returning the card to us. We can also cancel this agreement at any time without prior notice but we will inform you of such cancellation in writing.

If you cancel this agreement, you will immediately return to us all cards. If either of us cancels this agreement, you still have to pay your debt and any other amounts you owe us in full.

The terms of this agreement will survive the termination or withdrawal of services and will continue to apply with respect to determination of responsibility and resolution of all disputes for events, acts or omissions occurring before or circumstances as exist as at the time of the termination or withdrawal. We may give details of your account or your name and address to anyone if the law says we must; we have a public duty to do so; this is necessary to protect our interests; or you ask us to provide the details to someone else (for example, by signing an application form that includes an appropriate declaration). We may also give credit reference agencies information about your account.

In the event that we need to forward account information to third party data processors located outside of Bermuda, you acknowledge the need for such commercial arrangements and authorize this to occur. By using this card, you consent to and authorize any such disclosure. BCB shall not become liable because of giving of any such information or because of its being inaccurate or incomplete.
